Midreshet HaRova

The André Veres Advanced Torah Academy for Women

COURSE CATALOG

2025-26
תשפ"ו

Introduction

Since its inception in 1990, Midreshet HaRova has provided a unique Israel study experience for thousands of young women from all over the world.

With the Jewish Quarter of Jerusalem's Old City as a backdrop, students at the Midrasha enjoy an unparalleled setting in which to develop spiritually and intellectually, thus preparing themselves to make an impact as educated Jewish women in both Israel and the Diaspora.

History

From a small program with a handful of students from the Southern Hemisphere, Midreshet HaRova has developed into one of Israel's leading seminaries, currently sponsoring more than half a dozen programs, serving over 400 women from Israel and around the globe.

From a single building, the Midrasha now comprises a multi-building campus in the Old City, as well as several off-site locations both within and outside of Jerusalem. The vibrant heart of the Midrasha is the Betty and Joseph Kopelowitz Study Hall, a modern Beit Midrash with seating for 150 students.

In 2009 the Midrasha was officially renamed Midreshet HaRova: The André Veres Advanced Torah

Academy for Women in recognition of a major gift from the Veres family.

The student body at Midreshet HaRova is a mosaic of the Jewish world, with women hailing from Israel, North America, the United Kingdom, Continental Europe, South Africa and Australia. United by their motivation to learn and their thirst for spiritual growth, they live and study together, learn from and about each other, and coalesce into a single unit. The singular nature of this group gives the Midrasha its unique, unmatched character.

Educational Philosophy

It is a basic tenet of the educational philosophy of the Midrasha that Torah study should not be viewed as merely an academic and intellectual pursuit but should, first and foremost, help shape one's personality.

With this in mind, each student at the Midrasha is encouraged to maximize her personal growth according to her individual needs and interests.

The educational program at the Midrasha emphasizes independence in learning through chavruta study, while at the same time offering an extraordinary array of courses designed to allow each student the opportunity to delve into areas of personal interest. While class size varies, the average class size is roughly 18 students per class, thus facilitating a high degree of student faculty interaction.

The educational philosophy that drives the Midrasha views the Overseas Program as a holistic experience, neither limited to the classroom nor bound by the traditional academic calendar.

The Midrasha never closes its doors, even during times that classes are not in session, so students are never at a loss for activities during vacation time.

During their time in Israel, Midrasha students tour extensively, participate in enriching seminar programs, and are introduced to a wide swath of Israeli society, all the while deepening their attachment to the people and the Land of Israel.

Faculty

The Overseas Program is directed by our Rosh Midrasha, Rav David Milston and our Menahelit, Dr. Yocheved Debow.

Originally from London, Rav Milston was ordained by the Chief Rabbinate of Israel after many years of study at Yeshivat Har Etzion, where he studied under Rav Yehuda Amital, zt"l, and Rav Aharon Lichtenstein, zt"l. Prior to that, he earned his bachelor's degree at Jews' College in England, where he was a Talmid Muvhak of Rabbi Isaac Bernstein, zt"l.

Dr. Debow holds a BA in Psychology and Education, and an MA in Child Clinical and Educational Psychology. She received her doctorate in Education at Bar-Ilan University as a presidential fellow. Dr. Debow studied Limmudei Kodesh at Michlalah, Jerusalem College for Women, is a world expert on sexuality education in the Orthodox Jewish world.

With an ideal blend of youth and experience, the faculty provides the intellectual spark which illuminates the Midrasha. Their varied educational backgrounds provide a broad canvas for students seeking direction and searching for answers. Through the warmth of their personalities, women coming to the Midrasha find a group of role models to whom they can relate and who they can strive to emulate.

Overseas Program

The Overseas Program at Midreshet HaRova is an intensive program designed for the highly motivated student who wishes to accomplish the maximum during her time at the Midrasha. Classes begin at 8:30 am and continue until 10:00 pm, with many students staying in the Beit Midrash past that time.

Overseas students also benefit from the close relationship with the Midrasha's programs for Israeli women. Overseas students have the option to maintain at least one weekly chavruta with their Israeli counterparts. Socially, participants on the two programs interact freely, spending Shabbatot together and enjoying joint seminars, tiyulim and educational and social activities.

Guidance and Support

Leaving home for a year, and moving to a new country with a different culture can be quite challenging. Our Hadracha program is designed to support our student body as they navigate these challenges.

The Hadracha program at the Midrasha is staffed by six Mashgichot, six Rakazot, two Imahot Bayit and a team of Madrichot, all of whom are dedicated to ensuring that your year will not be just academically successful, but most importantly also one of personal and spiritual achievement and growth.

MASHGICHOT

Midreshet HaRova is a large Midrasha which offers a wide variety of formal and informal educational activities to a diverse and inquisitive student body. In order to provide every student with the individual attention that she deserves, each student is assigned a Mashgicha. The Mashgicha is a mentor who meets individually with her students on a regular basis to help support them and ensure that each student is maximizing her time and experiences here at the Midrasha. The Mashgichot focus on the social – emotional aspects of each student's experience at Midrasha as well as her personal growth and development. In addition, each student is part of a Mashgicha group which serves as a smaller community within the larger Midrasha community. Mashgicha groups are a safe space to process, learn, grow, share experiences and be known in a more significant way. Mashgicha groups meet once a week and are an integral component of life in Midreshet HaRova.

RAKAZOT

An additional layer of support is provided by our Rakazot. Rakazot are young women who help guide the process of creating communities in the apartments and in the dorm. They host regular apartment activities and meetings. As they get to know the students they are available for individual chats, guidance and chevrotot. Our Rakazot provide an additional avenue through which students feel seen and cared for by young women closer to their age, women who themselves have experienced a year in Israel not so long ago and can share wisdom from their own journeys.

IMAHOT BAYIT

Our Imahot Bayit play a central role in supporting student welfare at the Midrasha. They are on campus around the clock – available to take care of small day to day needs as well as larger, unexpected surprises. They help deal with medical issues, apartment needs and serve as a sympathetic ear to talk to and a supportive presence to celebrate with. They are always available to offer wisdom and support.

MADRICHOT

Our team of Madrichot have chosen to dedicate their second year of National Service to helping our overseas students. As Bnot Sherut they are close in age to our students and therefore can better understand their struggles as well as many of their interests. They are available 24/7 and they play a central role in many different areas of student life at the Midrasha.

Student Life

Students are housed in either the newly renovated Midrasha dormitory or in local apartments. Both the dormitory and the apartments are each located a short walk from the main Midrasha building, and they offer a unique blend of modern amenities and Old City charm. With balconies, rooftops and airy public spaces, Midrasha housing provides an ideal atmosphere for students to relax during their free time.

Shabbat becomes a singular experience when spent in the Old City. Whether singing and dancing at the Kotel on Friday night, or enjoying meals and programs in the company of friends and visiting faculty members, students infuse the spiritual setting of the Rova with the ruach of the Midrasha.

All students are strongly encouraged to participate in a weekly volunteer program, travelling to area hospitals, schools, clinics, and homes, lending a hand to individuals in need. The Midrasha views these, as well as other acts of chesed organized independently by the student body, as inseparable parts of the program.

The Midrasha provides three nutritious meals daily. Constant supervision is provided by experienced madrichot, who are overseen by our on campus Imahot Bayit.

Important Note: Students register for courses 101–108 based on skill level. The topics covered may vary from year to year; second year students may therefore register for the same course they have taken previously.

BIB 101–102

Torah SheBichtav • Intermediate Level • Book of Numbers

Sefer BaMidbar takes us on a journey from dependence to responsibility, from travellers to a nation. In this class, we will explore the dramatic stories, complex characters, and spiritual challenges that shaped Am Yisrael in the desert. Through a close reading of the text and classical commentaries, we'll uncover the deeper messages behind the failures and the successes of the generation of the Midbar, and discover what their journey can teach us about leadership, growth, and our own Avodat Hashem today.

- Rav Eytan Kleinberg
- Monday and Thursday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

BIB 103–104

Torah SheBichtav • Intermediate Level • From Exile to Redemption

Understanding that the Torah is our manual for life, it is incumbent upon us to understand its moral and ethical value system even through its characters and their stories. In this class we study the final chapters of Sefer Bereishit and the first half of Sefer Shemot. Through the focused utilization of textual analysis along with a complement of classical commentaries, we not only learn the skills with which to properly dissect the Torah's text, but walk away with a greater and deeper understanding of Hashem's intended messages as conveyed through the biblical narrative and enumerated mitzvot.

- Rav Jonathan Bailey
- Monday and Thursday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

BIB 105–106

Torah SheBichtav • Intermediate Level • Exodus

This course takes an in-depth look at Sefer Shemot, with the goal of drawing relevant and practical guidance for spiritual growth from the deeper messages contained within. Emphasis is placed on developing textual skills and delving deeply into classical commentaries such as Rashi, Malbim, Maharal, Or HaChaim, and many others, as well as later meforshim, Mussar texts, Chassidic thought, and Gemara.

- Rav Yonny Sack
- Monday and Thursday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

BIB 107A–108A

Torah SheBichtav • Advanced Level • Philosophical Journey Through Chumash

In this course we explore Chumash, Judaism's fundamental foundational text, with a new set of eyes, challenging and encouraging you to rethink answers to basic questions about Judaism and life itself which we tend to take for granted. Some of the topics include: Emuna, Am Yisrael, Torah, Teshuva, Hashgacha, Reward and Punishment, Mashiach, Olam Habah, and more. In class we revisit the classic stories and texts of our people and, together with many sources, come to new understandings which directly impact our daily lives.

- Rav Avigdor Meyerowitz
- Monday and Thursday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

BIB 107–108

Torah SheBichtav • Advanced Level • Genesis/Numbers

Genesis – We will explore the various relationships described in Sefer Bereishit. By means of textual analysis, and a wide range of classical and modern commentaries, we will delve deeply into the well-known stories and events and endeavor to understand their significance as part of the Torah.

Numbers – We will study the sections of the Torah which deal with the journey of Bnei Yisrael as described in the Book of Numbers. Our study combines close textual analysis with a plethora of classical and modern commentaries. Emphasis is placed on understanding how the various exegetes relate to text.

- Rav Yonatan Horovitz (Hebrew)
- Monday and Thursday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

BIB 109-110Bekiut Torah • Survey of the Pentateuch

This is a survey course designed to familiarize students with large sections of the Torah and select passages with the commentary of Rashi.

- Rav Yonatan Horovitz – Intermediate
- Rav Eytan Kleinberg – Intermediate
- Rav David Milston – Advanced
- Monday and Thursday 8:30 am – 9:50 am
- 3 credits per semester

BIB 109A-109BA Dvar Torah for Shabbat

The main goal of the course is to prepare a meaningful “Dvar Torah” to be able to share on Shabbat. The first part of the class is spent reviewing the parsha with the guidance of parsha sheets. Ideas are then taken from the classical commentators such as Rashi, Ramban, Ohr Hachaim, Kli Yakar as well as Chassidic sources such as the Sfat Emet, Netivot Shalom. Pages of divrei Torah from contemporary Torah personalities are also given each session. Students are encouraged to compile a notebook of divrei Torah which covers the entire year.

- Rav David Berg
- Monday and Thursday 8:30 am – 9:50 am
- 3 credits per semester

BIB 118AKings and Prophets • The Book of Kings

An in-depth study of the forces at work in one of the most intense, intriguing periods of Jewish History. Our study will combine textual analysis with conceptual understanding of this book and its meaning for us today. Specific subjects that will be addressed include: the transition from the reign of Shlomo; the splitting of the kingdom; the diverse relationship of the two kingdoms with each other and with the surrounding nations; prophets and their struggle against idolatry.

- Rav Yonatan Horovitz
- Thursday 4:15 pm – 5:20 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester • Fall semester only

BIB 120Trei Assar • Selections From The Twelve Minor Prophets • Focusing on Haggai, Zecharia and Malachi, Yona and Habakkuk

The last three prophets ever in the history of prophecy! Learn the final words of God as transmitted through the final prophets, from the encouragement of Haggai, the mysterious visions of Zecharia and the admonition of Malachi. We will also learn the classic story of Yona on a deep textual level and Habakkuk, one of the least known prophets, who struggled with the fundamental philosophical questions facing Jews even today.

- Rav Zvi Ron
- Wednesday 2:45 pm – 3:50 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester • Spring semester only

BIB 121Understanding Eden

Why are there two creation stories? Why was man created before woman? Or was he? What actually happened in Gan Eden? What can we learn about the nature of male and the nature of female from those first chapters of creation? How does sin affect man and woman's relationship with each other and with God? What can we learn about the nature of our relationship with God from these chapters, both as individuals and as a community? We will explore the text of the first chapters in Bereishit in order to understand the essence of man and woman, their differences and their similarities. We will then explore the nature of sin – religious sin and moral sin in the context of Gan Eden and Cain and Hevel. What do these chapters teach us about human nature? How much have we changed and what lessons can we learn for the way we live our own lives? This class will use both text and discussion to explore these issues which are an essential part of ourselves.

■ Sunday 4:15 pm – 5:20 pm

■ 1.5 credits per semester • Fall semester only

BIB 123–124Bekiut Tanach • Survey of the Prophets

In this survey course, students are required to prepare five or more chapters of Tanach a week. The weekly lecture summarizes the general themes of the chapters covered together with the highlights of the stories. The aim of this course is to provide a general overview of the books of Nevi'im Rishonim.

■ Rav Yonatan Horovitz

■ Sunday 9:00 am – 9:50 am

■ Wednesday 8:30 am – 9:50 am

■ 3 credits per semester

BIB 125–126Unpacking the Midrashim of Your Childhood • A Deep Dive Into The Hidden Truths Of The Midrash

Have you ever heard the phrase: "Oh, that's just a Midrash"? Have you ever wondered: What does that even mean? Are Midrashim true in the full sense of the word? Did they actually happen? Did Avraham break the idols? Was Rivka three years old at the well? Was Dina put in a box? Did Rachel give the codes to her sister? Did Nachshon Ben Aminadav dive into Yam Suf first? Did Lot keep Pesach? Was Eisav really bad? Is his head buried in Chevron? Did Queen Vashti have a tail?

Why have I been taught all of these stories that way? Why are they not in my Chumash? Is the whole Torah just a 'story'? Did any of it even happen?

If you are puzzled or troubled by these questions – this course is for you! In this course we will re-examine the Parsha stories of our childhood and find out what the Torah actually says! But we will also go further, delving deep into the Midrashic story and extracting from it the core ideas that form our Jewish conscience and identity. Join us as we explore the relationship between Peshat and Derash and rediscover the important role that Midrashim play in our day to day lives.

- Rav Asher Manning
- Tuesday 9:45 am – 10:50 am
- 1.5 credits per semester

BIB 127–128

Nashim BeTanach • Women in the Bible

This course covers portraits of the women who appear in Tanach through the eyes of Chazal. Individuals studied will include Sara, Rivka, Rachel, Leah, Miriam, Tzipora, Devora, Esther and Ruth.

- Miriam Wolf
- Wednesday 5:30 pm – 6:40 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

BIB 131A–132A

Saul and David • The Book of Samuel I

This course covers the entire first book of Shmuel. We begin each new chapter with a quick, independent reading of the text and answering of accompanying 'directive' questions (provided on separate sheets); this process helps us familiarize ourselves with the chapter's general contents. We then analyze more deeply, using only selected excerpts, specific pesukim of that chapter and cross-referenced sections throughout the rest of Tanach, the chapter's specific themes and ideas, while also appreciating its overall place in the entire work. Along the way, we also build the invaluable skills of textual analysis. Some of the themes which we discuss are: the rise of Shmuel as Shofet and King's navi; the rise and fall of Shaul, the first King of Israel; the rise of David, from shepherd to 'next-in-line'; Shaul's tragic obsession for eradicating the usurper to his throne.

Required text: Tanach

- Rav Jonathan Bailey
- Sunday 5:30 pm – 6:40 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

BIB 134

Tehillim • The Book of Psalms

In this class we study select chapters in Tehillim. By focussing primarily on the text of the Psalms themselves, we analyze the structures of the pesukim, the author's purposeful choice of words, and their contextual usages within the chapter's overall theme and ideas. In this way, beyond building the invaluable skills of textual analysis, we glean a deeper understanding not only of the chapter itself but also the application of the Psalm under consideration.

- Rav Yonatan Horovitz
- Thursday 4:15 pm – 5:20 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester • Spring semester only

BIB 135A

Tzaddik V'Ra Lo • Why the Righteous Suffer

This course focuses on the question of why the righteous suffer as represented in the book of Iyov. Within this process we attempt to understand the human motivation to do good, as understood by the Satan and by the author of Iyov. Furthermore, we try to put ourselves in the place of Iyov's friends, and attempt to answer Iyov's questions. Finally, we touch upon the connection between Iyov's questions and our questions concerning the Holocaust.

- Dara Unterberg
- Monday 4:05 pm – 5:05 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester • Fall semester only

BIB 138

Five Megillot

Why didn't Mordechai bow down to Haman? How can we take the messages of Shir Hashirim and apply them to our own relationships with others, and with Hashem? Did Naomi go out of her way to take care of Ruth, or was she simply looking out for herself? How can we possibly relate to the destruction of the Temple and what does the book of Eichah have to teach us about human suffering and mourning?

We will search for answers to these questions, and various others, with the intent of understanding the peshat, or the simple intended meaning of the author as well as messages beyond. In our quest, we will use Tanach, midrashim, mefarshim, and other commentators. Special emphasis will be placed on hashkafic issues that arise while reading these texts, and how sages throughout the ages have grappled with these issues.

The Book of Daniel

Daniel is possibly the most mysterious book in the Tanach. Can we unravel the mysteries of Daniel's visions? Were these visions purely Messianic, or were they relevant to Daniel's own historical period? Was Daniel a prophet? We approach the Book of Daniel as an important window into the life of the Jews in Babylonian exile, and as the historical link between the First and Second Temple periods.

The Commentary of Nachmanides on the Torah

Rabbi Moshe ben Nachman's (1194–1270) commentary on the Torah is second only to Rashi in its proliferation and importance in shaping Jewish thought and philosophy. In this Parshat HaShavua course we will study what are known as “the famous Rambans!” on the parsha and learn about his writings and teachings. In addition we will on occasion try and delve into some of the Kabbalistic inferences and interpretations he makes (the ones that ArtScroll wouldn't translate...) and see what practical implications they have for our understanding and practice of Judaism.

BIB 161Family Feuds

This course delves into the complex web of family relationships throughout Tanach—from the most foundational stories of the forefathers to the tangled dynamics of later biblical families. We'll examine both functional and not-so-functional family models, uncovering human emotions, conflicts, and reconciliations that make these narratives so timeless and relevant. Through a close reading of the pshat, classical commentators, modern psychological insights, and contemporary perspectives, students will gain a multifaceted understanding of these characters and their choices.

Our great chassidic masters were (and continue to be) devoted to a Jewish life that infuses even the mundane with spirituality. When it comes to Torah study it is not enough to look at what is revealed to us, rather Chassidut begs us to look further into the depths of the Torah and bring meaning to every word that we read and every mitzvah that we keep. In this class we explore the relevant lessons of each week's Torah portion based on the writings of many of our great Chassidic masters. We develop the ideas of the parsha while opening our eyes to the vast world of Chassidic Torah and interpretation and the direct impact it has on our personal Avodat Hashem. Texts studied include Netivot Shalom, Sfas Emes, Likutei Torah, Kedushas Levi, Baal Shem Tov al HaTorah.

BIB 167–168Eternity • Early Prophets: Eternal Messages

At a first glance, much of Nevi'im Rishonim appears to be a collection of stories in Jewish History beginning with the people entering the land of Israel with Yehoshua, and concluding with the destruction of the first Beit HaMikdash at the end of Melachim Bet. Yet above and beyond the story of the development, progression, and ultimate demise (albeit temporarily), of Am Yisrael in Eretz Yisrael, each episode in Tanach has an eternal message. As we study each and every chapter of Nevi'im Rishonim together, we are able to reap lessons that are of fundamental importance to us as individuals, and to the people of Israel as a nation. We firstly learn the relevant chapter in the Beit Midrash, then aim to fully understand the lessons therein. Our objective is to reveal the eternal lessons of the Nevi'im.

Interpersonal Relationships in the Prophets

Building and maintaining healthy relationships is both challenging and rewarding. In this class we examine selected texts in Sifrei Nevi'im in order to better understand and appreciate the complexity of interpersonal relationships. We explore the dynamics of relationships between parent and child, siblings, friends, leaders and followers, teachers and students, among others. We develop critical thinking skills as we view each encounter through the lens of our own understanding as well as classical and contemporary parshanut. Topics include David and Batsheva, Eliyahu and Elisha, David and Yonatan, Devorah and Barak, Chana/Penina and Elkanah etc. Each unit ends with a discussion of the practical application and relevance of the tools and lessons we are learning to our everyday lives.

Artistic Expression

This course is designed both to give students guidance in a variety of art forms and techniques and to teach students a form of self-expression that can be used to enhance their learning and living as Jewish women. The program allows students to experiment with materials, styles and mediums including painting, sculpture and drawing, and to work on individual art pieces of each student's choice. Students may choose a common theme which they research in traditional sources in order to express the theme through a variety of artistic mediums. A further description of the Jewish Art program and its aims can be found elsewhere in this catalog.

The Written Word

Creative writing is a means to explore both the world within us and that which surrounds us through the written word. This course is a hands-on writing workshop where we practice techniques for inner exploration and greater creative written expression while exploring the relationship of the written word to our inner spiritual life. Writing topics include those related to the Jewish yearly cycle, specific writing techniques and topics that arise from our learning. Together we write, share and come to a greater understanding of how using the written word can enhance our learning and life experience. Previous writing background not required. Be sure to come with a willingness to explore and work together in a group setting.

This course is also numbered JUD 183–184.

The Written Word • Journaling

Did you always want to keep a journal for self-exploration, but not know how? Do you keep a journal but find yourself going in circles, rehashing the same concerns? What better time to develop skills of self-exploration through the written word and in what better context than that of Midrash? This course is a hands-on writing workshop in which we learn structured journaling exercises combined with Torah sources to help us consider what shapes our life, and how we might use what we have learned as we move forward. In each class we learn a technique, write, and have time for sharing to allow us to go deeper in our exploratory work. Previous writing experience not required (nor is personal sharing). Even if you journal already, there is much to gain from this unique approach to writing out your life.

DEPARTMENT OF JEWISH HISTORY היסטוריה

JHI 109–110

Understanding Contemporary Israel

Recent years have seen a sharp increase in negative sentiments toward Israel on North American college campuses. This course is intended to help students confront this challenge by instilling them with a deeper understanding of the complexities and nuances of the Arab-Israeli conflict. The students also gain leadership and activism skills to effectively make the case for Israel. The course is divided into four segments:

The connection of the Jewish people to the Land of Israel

Understanding the Arab–Israeli conflict

The fundamentals of effective activism

Leadership development and personal growth

The goal of this course is not simply to leave students with a greater knowledge and understanding of Israel and the conflict, but also to provide them with the skills necessary to step up for Israel on their campuses and within their communities. To that end, significant emphasis is placed on developing students' leadership potential and on empowering students to view themselves as actors in Jewish history with the ability to make a meaningful impact in the world. Using the latest multimedia educational resources, including film and video, this course features interactive workshops, guest speakers, and uses current events as the backdrop for class discussion.

Faith in Times of Darkness

Since the time that the Talmud was completed, Jews have applied the precepts of Halacha to the changing social, legal and economic aspects of both their personal and communal lives. One of the most common tools to accomplish this goal has been the use of Responsa, answers given to specific issues raised by individual questioners. Remarkably but unsurprisingly, even during the darkest chapter of Jewish History, the Holocaust, believing Jews continued to seek halachic guidance to help them confront the daily horrors forced upon them by the Nazi regime. In this class we study selected responsa which help us to appreciate the personal heroism which enabled individuals, and a nation to retain personal and communal dignity while trying to survive the genocidal goals of the Nazi killing machine.

JPH 103–104Finding Meaning in Prayer • Tefilla Workshop

Connecting to prayer is a challenge that many face, despite prayer being an integral pillar of Jewish life. For many of us, we have great familiarity with the words but lack the understanding and meaning of what we're saying in order to connect to Tefilla on a deeper level. Learning to unlock the true power of one's Tefilla is something that takes deep understanding of the spiritual mechanics of Tefilla, both philosophical and practical. In this class we learn sources to help us build our personal world of Tefilla, our understanding of what Tefilla is, what we are saying, how to use Tefilla properly as well as exploring practical methods to make Tefilla more meaningful, harnessing its tremendous power in our Avodat Hashem and lives in general.

In addition to being the “Father of Religious-Zionism”, Rav Kook, the first Chief Rabbi of Israel, is considered among Jews and non-Jews alike to be one of the most original thinkers of the century. His harmonic, holistic and optimistic approach deals with just about every question and topic facing the modern Jew, and has proven to be extremely popular, relevant, and inspiring to our generation. Topics are selected by Rav Shvat (one of the editors of Rav Kook’s writings!) from the most famous and classic chapters of Rav Kook’s 40 books, as well as unpublished manuscripts, including Emunah; free will; good-evil in the world; the pleasant way to Tshuva; understanding “The Generation”; parent-child relationships; vegetarianism; improving motivation to learn; understanding/identifying with the mitzvot; the beauty of history; intellect and emotion; “understanding”, love and awe of G-d; the goal of life; evolution; secular morality; why youth are so idealistic, how do you know which “hashkafa” is correct, and more.

JPH 113–114Rambam’s Thirteen Principles of Jewish Faith •*“Doon’t Stop Believing”: A Journey Through the Rambam’s 13 Ikkarei Emunah

Is faith a prerequisite for Avodat Hashem? Can a Jew be an atheist and yet still be considered an observant Jew? What constitutes heresy and are there any practical issues of it nowadays? In this course we will explore the Rambam’s 13 Principles of Faith – Yud Gimmel Ikkarim (known often as “The 13 Ani Ma’amins”) and discuss the practical ramifications of each of these beliefs, where they stem from, and how they apply to our daily living as committed Jews. We will also debate and discuss whether Chazal or the Torah requires that we believe anything at all in order to be considered a religiously observant or “Torah-observant” Jew.

JPH 129Becoming A Better Me

Rambam was one of the most prolific and influential Jewish scholars of the Middle Ages. He is well known for writing Mishneh Torah, Sefer Hamitzvot, Guide to the Perplexed, and so much more. During this course we will study one of his most interesting works – Hakdamah L'Shemoneh Prakim (Eight Chapters) which is his introduction to Pirkei Avot. In this work, Rambam teaches us the inner workings of what makes up the Nefesh and how to fix imbalances. Is it possible to change a character trait? Can I control my thoughts? Do I have the power to control my imagination? Can I get rid of a bad habit? Questions such as these will be answered in the first half of the course. The second half of the course will focus on important philosophical questions, such as: Why do bad things happen to good people? Do I really have free choice? How can I become a prophet? This class is an in depth study of the text, but will also give you practical tools to work on changing negative behaviors.

JPH 133–134Jewish Meditation and Mysticism

Rabbi Aryeh Kaplan (1934–1983) was one of the previous century's most prolific and influential Jewish writers and authors, translating and publishing more than 50 books, including "The Living Torah", his own translation of the Chumash which quickly became one of the most widely read and used translations available. All of this, despite only living to the age of 48. A renowned physicist, Aryeh Kaplan broke through a barrier by translating and explaining vast Kabbalistic texts and literature and making them available to the public for the first time. In this course, in addition to exploring several of his other works, we will read and study his seminal masterpiece "Jewish Meditation" and "Meditation and the Bible" and learn about gaining access to the spiritual and how to put Jewish meditation into practice through study, hands-on meditative sessions, and guidance, as well as learning the practical applications of these skills to enhance one's tefillot and Avodat Hashem in all areas of life.

JPH 139–140Ethical Teachings in the Bible • Netivot Shalom

Netivot Shalom was authored by Rabbi Shalom Berezovsky, the previous Slonimer Rebbe of Jerusalem. It is a work that transcends denominations, and is extremely popular even outside of Chassidic circles. The Rebbe has a refreshingly clear way of explaining complex concepts in Chassidut. We will study from a wide range of his essays, including those dealing with the weekly Torah portion, those dealing with faith and Tefillah, and some fascinating ideas on the Jewish calendar. This is a course that will expose us to the basic fundamentals of Chassidut in a way that is relatable, comprehensible, and uplifting.

JPH 145–146Change of Heart: The Vision of Eim HaBanim Smeicha

In this class, we will dive into the transformative and profound work “Eim HaBanim Smeicha”, written by Rav Yissachar Shlomo Teichtal. A former anti-Zionist Chassid of the Munkatsher Rebbe, Rav Teichtal’s perspective radically shifted after experiencing the horrors of the Holocaust. Through this book, he passionately argues for the centrality of Zionism, seeing it as the fulfillment of Jewish prophecy. Together, we will explore the journey of Rav Teichtal’s ideological evolution, and how his personal experiences shaped his groundbreaking thoughts on the importance of the Jewish people returning to their homeland.

Chassidic Thought in a Modern Age • Writings of the Rebbe of Piaseczna

This course focuses on an array of topics that are discussed in the many writings of the Rebbe of Piaseczna HY"D. The Rebbe had a major following before the war, ran an underground Shul in the Warsaw Ghetto (where his sermons were later published), and was then murdered in a concentration camp. Topics covered include Jewish education in the modern era, dealing with difficulty, building faith, meditation, and many more.

JPH 159–160

Writings of Rav Samson Raphael Hirsch

In this course we will deal with the historical background of the Jewish community in 19th century Europe during the period of Enlightenment, as well as the Hirschian concept of "Torah im Derech Eretz". We will be focusing primarily on Rav Hirsch's seminal first work The Nineteen Letters as well as selected essays and excerpts of Chorev and his Commentary on the Torah. We will discuss the spirit of Judaism and the role of mitzvot as well as the significance of justice and love as primary goals in our Avodat Hashem.

The Problem of Evil: Gan Eden to Auschwitz

What is evil, and why does it exist in a world created by a good and all-powerful God? In this class we will explore the nature, purpose, and origins of evil through Jewish thought. From the snake in Gan Eden to the suffering of the innocent in Auschwitz, we will study how Tanach, Chazal, and major Jewish philosophers understand evil. Through deep text learning and open discussion, we will work to understand what role evil plays in our physical and spiritual worlds, and how these ideas shape our response to the darkest parts of life.

Morality

In this course, we will study Morality: Restoring the Common Good in Divided Times by Rabbi Jonathan Sacks. “A free society is a moral achievement. Over the past fifty years in the West this truth has been forgotten, ignored, or denied.” With liberal democracy embattled, public discourse grown toxic, family life breaking down, and drug abuse and depression on the rise, many fear what the future holds.

In Morality, Rabbi Sacks traces today's crisis to our loss of a strong, shared moral code and our elevation of self-interest over the common good... Rabbi Sacks shows that there is no liberty without morality and no freedom without responsibility, arguing that we must all must play our part in rebuilding a common moral foundation. It is about ‘Us,’ not ‘Me’; about ‘We,’ not ‘I.’

The class will be in a book club format. Participants will be required to read a chapter a week before the scheduled class. Our class time will be spent unpacking the chapter, and discussing the big ideas that are presented in the text. In addition, we will construct plans of action to “walk the walk”, and partner in Rabbi Sacks' inspiring vision of a world in which we can all find our place and face the future without fear.

JPH 168

Future Tense – Rabbi Sacks' Vision for Jews and Judaism in the Global Culture

In this course, we will study Rabbi Jonathan Sacks' book, Future Tense: A Vision For Jews And Judaism In The Global Culture. “We are in danger,” says Rabbi Sacks, “of forgetting what Judaism's place is within the global project of humankind. The Jewish people exist for a reason, and it is not for themselves alone. They must recommit themselves to their foundational purpose: to the task of creating a just world in which the Divine Presence can dwell among us all... That will mean engaging with the world, not disengaging from it...”

There is work to do, work that begins with the Jewish soul. A people that can survive the Holocaust can face the future without fear. So can Israel, having survived every assault by its enemies and given back to the Jewish people a space within which it can defend itself and begin to create the kind of society Jews were commanded to create... Jews should remember that the word ‘chosen’ means that Jews are called on to be self critical, never forgetting the tasks they have been set and not yet completed.”

The class will be in a book club format. Participants will be required to read a chapter a week before the scheduled class. Our class time will be spent unpacking the chapter, and discussing the big ideas that are presented in the text.

The Masters of Mussar (Ethics)

This class delves into the awe-inspiring lives, Torah teachings, and guidance of the angels amongst men known as the Baalei HaMussar (Masters of Mussar). These men set out to revive, restore and inspire the Jewish heart and soul through a spiritual revolution focused on sincere spiritual growth known as the Mussar Movement. From the Torah and lives of such spiritual giants as Rav Yisrael Salanter, the Alter of Kelm, the Alter of Slobodka and many others we will discover the unique sincerity, passion, soul and integrity that exemplify Mussar teachings, with the goal of awakening our own authentic inner soul connection to Hashem and His Torah.

JPH 173-174Relationships Through Kabbalah

The drive for love is something embedded deep within the fibers of our soul. But what is it? How do I find it? And when I find it, how do I keep it? What is the secret to building a strong relationship of love that will last? In this course we will study the deeply powerful book “Ahava” by Rav Yitzchak Ginsburg. We will learn the different stages of building a strong relationship before and after marriage based on the eleven sefirot of Kabbalah. Each stage has special qualities and lessons that will change the way we view the concept of “love” and help us understand the internal work necessary in creating and sustaining a healthy marital relationship.

JPH 175-176Ayeka: Self Discovery and Fulfillment Through Torah

This class explores a remarkable book of Rav Reuven Sasson that reveals how true freedom is found through the Torah. We will delve into the profound idea that the Torah is not a set of restrictions, but a path to uncovering your deepest, most authentic self – a self that resonates perfectly with the light and guidance of Torah. Together, we'll examine how living in harmony with these timeless teachings leads to a life of genuine meaning and fulfillment. Join us for thoughtful discussion, personal reflection, and a journey toward understanding the unique liberty and purpose that Torah living offers.

JPH 190Likutei Moharan

Likutei Moharan is the collected teachings and arguably the most important work of Rebbe Nachman of Breslev. It is the fundamental text of Breslever Chassidim, and one of the most influential works in the Chassidic world in general. The book is a collection of lessons, each of which is referred to as a “Torah” by Rebbe Nachman, and compiled by his foremost disciple, Rebbe Natan. The first part of the book was printed in 1808, during the lifetime of Rebbe Nachman, while the second part was printed separately, only after his passing in 1810. Likutei Moharan is neither a textbook nor a commentary; the lessons therein contain Rebbe Nachman’s perceptions of the essence of reality, garbed in wisdom and packaged in a way that will enable us to gain access to these perceptions in a manner appropriate to the student’s capacity and spiritual level. Thus, each discourse is a complete path, tailor-made to every student in every moment. We will be learning a chosen selection of Torah from this exceptional sefer.

JPH 193–194Building a Jewish World View

A strong Hashkafa helps us make sense of life’s big questions and our everyday decisions. In this class we will explore the key ideas and values that shape a Torah-based perspective on reality. Through classic sources and contemporary thinkers, we will discuss topics such as free will, human purpose, the nature of good and evil, the role of the Jewish people, and the connection between the physical and spiritual.

The goal is to build a thoughtful and grounded Jewish outlook that can guide how we live, think, and engage with the world.

JUD 121–122

Ben Adam L'Chaveiro • Laws of Interpersonal Behavior From the Sources

An essential part of living a Jewish life is treating our fellow Jews with love and respect. But how do we achieve that goal? There are many laws which teach us how to conduct our relationships, and the aim of this class is to delve into these important halachot. Starting from the psukim and reaching modern-day psak, we will learn the halachot directly from the sources. Each class will explore how to apply these halachot in our daily interactions with our friends, family, and community.

JUD 125–126

Contemporary Issues in Jewish Law

In this class we follow the path of the modern-day posek and discover, through the texts that he would have used, the modern application of our previously established halachic rulings. Averaging a new question every two classes, we learn through the relevant texts, understanding the principle to be gleaned from each of them and then applying them, step-by-step, to our halachic query. Issues addressed include: Can a kohen who caused a fatal driving accident join in blessing the congregation? Are dolls idolatrous? Can one join a minyan over the internet? Is an electric blanket prohibited on Shabbat?

- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 129B-130BPractical Halacha • Survey of Basic Concepts in Jewish Law/Oriental Communities

This course is similar to JUD 129A-130A but emphasis is placed on the practice of Edot Mizrach (Oriental) communities, using the positions of Maran Rav Ovadiah Yosef and Rav Mordechai Eliyahu as a template.

- Rav Michael Susman
- Wednesday 5:30 pm – 6:40 pm
- 1.5 credit per semester

JUD 137-138Bein Isha LaMakom • Defining The Changeless Relationship Between Woman and God in Changing Times

In this class we will cover the role of women in ritual observance – specifically those that take place in the community, the Beit Knesset, and the private home – through an examination of Talmudic sources, responsa, and articles.

- Dr. Judith Fogel
- Tuesday 9:45 am – 10:50 am
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 139-140Mitzvot: Why and How?

As a special amalgamation of practical halacha and meaningful symbolism, this class explores the mitzvot of our chagim along with a collection of the mitzvot we commonly observe. The learning of each mitzvah includes the practical, relevant step-by-step process of how to perform these mitzvot correctly, along with an elucidation of the mitzvah's symbolic significance based on the Torah's descriptions. Note: Halachic practices to be discussed will generally reflect Ashkenazi tradition.

- Rav Jonathan Bailey
- Monday 4:05 pm – 5:05 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 141-142Being Orthodox in a Remarkably Unorthodox World

Being educated in a Jewish School but raised with one foot in secular society can lead to us being pulled in two different directions. How do I connect to tzniut when the world tells me to uncover rather than cover? How am I Shomer Halachot of Negiah when the world offers me such a different sexual ethic. Does Judaism have a sexual ethic and if so what is it? How do I support and respect my gay friends when Judaism has laws that are so strict in these areas? Or are they? How do I stay committed to Shabbat and kashrut on campuses that don't always make it easy for me? What are the six constant mitzvot that might help me stay strong? How do I figure out how to balance home and career – what comes first and what gives? Is there a place for feminism in Judaism? We will discuss some of the issues that challenge us as Orthodox Jewish women, look at halachot and hashkafot and look for anchors that can help guide us in these areas.

- Dr. Yocheved Debow
- Thursday 2:45 pm – 3:50 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester
- This is a one-semester course

JUD 147–148The Philosophy of Shabbat

Jewish living is formed as an external lifestyle expressing an internal vision. The halacha circumscribes the external lifestyle and consists of seemingly endless details. In this course, we will explore the traditions and halachot of shabbat in the context of the internal vision underlying Shabbat. What is Shabbat, and how does it fit into the overall framework of Torah life? How do the halachot of Shabbat express, create, and enhance the internal vision of Shabbat? We will analyze these questions and in doing so, broaden our shabbat celebration, our Jewish life, and our understanding of ourselves.

- Rav Asher Manning
- Tuesday 8:30 am – 9:35 am
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 151–152Discovering Texts

In this course we have a unique opportunity to explore and elucidate some of Judaism's fundamental concepts through Torah texts and World Literature. Employing poems from poets such as Wordsworth, Donne and Blake, excerpts from Shakespeare's plays, a variety of short stories along with many other samplings of great literature, the precepts of our faith, religion, philosophy and thought are more deeply understood and appreciated. This class involves a heavy focus on textual analysis of all the texts we will study.

- Rav Jonathan Bailey
- Wednesday 2:45 pm – 3:50 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 153–154Meaning in Halacha

Uncover the Neshama of Halacha! This class explores the depth and beauty of Halacha, focusing not only on the practical application but also on the meaning behind the Halachot, transforming everyday practice into a path to deeper meaning. We will get into the depth of sefarim such as the Shulchan Aruch, Mishna Brura, and Likutei Halachot.

JUD 161–162Medical Ethics

When does life begin? When and how does it end? Can one donate a kidney while still alive? What about terminating a pregnancy? In this course we study the classic and modern sources that answer these and many more questions in the fascinating and relevant area of medicine and halachah and discover an exciting interface between ancient texts and the most modern medical treatments.

- Rav Yonatan Horovitz
- Sunday 5:30 pm – 6:40 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 163–164Halacha and Israeli Law

The State of Israel is the home of the Jewish people. However, Israeli law is not the same as halacha. In fact, there are instances where the two come into conflict. In this course, we will seek to understand the place of halacha in Israeli law, and the significance of Israel's legal system in the eyes of halacha. We will examine actual Israeli legal cases dealing with criminal, family, and monetary law (and more!) and explore the benefits and challenges of creating a Jewish legal system in a modern State.

- Aviva Wapner
- Wednesday 5:30 pm – 6:40 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 165–166Minhagim and their Origins

This class is an exploration of various minhagim, concentrating on tracing the evolution of each particular minhag and the reasons behind it. The focus will be on minhagim associated with the holidays – connecting the study of particular minhagim with chagim as they occur. We will also explore minhagim of the Jewish life-cycle. Over the course of the year we will gain a deeper understanding of the unique role minhagim have in Jewish life.

- Rav Zvi Ron
- Wednesday 5:30 pm – 6:40 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

JUD 167Hakdamot HaRambam • Introductions to Maimonides' Works

This class offers an in-depth journey into the foundational introductions of the Rambam to his major works, including the Commentary on the Mishnah and the Mishneh Torah. We will examine how the Rambam's introductions lay out the chronology of the Oral Law, the basic principles of Jewish law, and his revolutionary vision for Jewish learning. Additionally, we will approach some of the big questions such as reward and punishment and the World to Come.

- 1.5 credits per semester • Fall semester only

JUD 181Know What to Answer • Da Mah L'Hashiv

This course tackles some of the questions that really bother people about traditional Judaism. The problems can be intellectual, moral, or emotional. We examine a range of answers from classic and contemporary sources. "Da Ma L'Hashiv" means "Know what to answer" to challenges to the Torah and Judaism – whether the challenger is your college roommate or the person in the mirror

JUD 183–184The Written Word

This course is identical to JA 107–108.

JUD 189–190Machloket Matters • The Role of Dispute and Disagreement in Jewish Practice

What makes a machloket (dispute) holy? Why does the Torah preserve so many disagreements, and what can we learn from them? In this course, we'll explore the role of machloket throughout Jewish history, from the debates of the Talmud to modern-day controversies. Through both classical sources and contemporary perspectives, we'll examine when disagreement is constructive, when it's dangerous, and how machloket can serve as a powerful tool for growth, truth, and connection – rather than division

DEPARTMENT OF TALMUD תורה שבעל פה

Important Note: Students register for courses 101–109 based on skill level. The topics covered may vary from year to year; second year students may therefore register for the same course they have taken previously.

TAL 101–102Talmud Trifecta

You can have it all! We will divide our morning between three areas of study. Get your engine started with mishnayot, then learn selected parts of the Gemara that deal with hashkafic matters (topics in Jewish thought) and end with the writings of the Rambam. The focus will be on acquiring textual skills as well as a wide base of knowledge. Suitable for beginners and people who aren't into Gemara.

- Rav Zvi Ron
- Sunday and Wednesday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

TAL 102ATorah SheBe'al Peh • Intensive Talmud • Beginner Level

This course introduces the uninitiated into the world of Gemara. Gemara is primarily a sophisticated study of Mishna by Amoraim. Gemara analyzes Mishna and its relationship with Braita. It then engages in halachic analytic discussion based upon the earlier sources. Therefore, the course begins with the in-depth study of Mishna, focusing on certain basic skills: understanding mishnayot, identifying the structure of a mishna and its central arguments, tracing wider trans-perek and masechet themes. Our Gemara study aims to familiarize students with the page of the Gemara, its language, and style. Emphasis is placed on both understanding the text and the halachic process.

- Rav Michael Susman
- Sunday and Wednesday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester • Spring semester only

TAL 103–104Torah SheBe'al Peh • Intensive Talmud • Intermediate Level

This course is designed for students who have had some exposure to the study of Gemara but do not feel that they are yet prepared for a higher level class. Emphasis is placed upon acquiring reading skills as well as following the Gemara's development of an issue and then tracing that issue's resolution in Halacha.

- Dr. Judith Fogel
- Sunday and Wednesday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

TAL 105–106Torah SheBe'al Peh • Intensive Talmud • Intermediate Level

This class has two basic goals: the development of the student's ability to independently read Gemara (every word, start to finish) and the intensive and careful learning of the text of the Gemara itself. The former is achieved through a system that focuses on the repeated structures, words and phrases of all Gemara, therein giving the student the ability to recognize and punctuate any Gemara she may see in the course of her study; the latter trains the student in her ability to truly recognize the motivation, meaning and direction of the Gemara's complex arguments. While Rishonim are used throughout the course of the year, the main focus is the intense study of the Gemara text, with a complement of Rashi and Tosfot. Some of the themes to be addressed include: The origin, concept, approaches and halachot regarding muktzah; the history behind one vs. two days of Yom Tov and why we can't 'fix it' today; application of several melachot of Shabbat, including squeezing and picking fruit; the intricate concepts of nullification of prohibited objects ('issur ve'heter'); why we have two days of Rosh Hashanah even in Israel.

- Sunday and Wednesday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

TAL 105A–106ATorah SheBe'al Peh • Intensive Talmud • Upper Intermediate Level

In this class we delve into the fascinating world of Nezikin to gain a greater appreciation of halakha through the study of the Tractate Bava Kamma. Students will become comfortable utilizing the resources of the classic daf as well as develop the skills to think critically about the formulations of the Gemara through the Rishonim and Acharonim and through a close-study of the text. This course requires the willingness to get into the details that go into translating the sugya precisely in order to unlock its underlying implications and track their subsequent halakhic development. We will cover a wide variety of topics such as vigilante justice in the eyes of halakha, damages in the public domain, and paying for benefit when it does not harm others. Our discussions will reach beyond the daf as we consider the theoretical and practical import of our sugyot and how they help shape us both as individuals and community members.

- Chaya Rayman
- Sunday and Wednesday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- 4 credits per semester

TAL 107–108Torah SheBe'al Peh • Intensive Talmud • Advanced level

This course is designed for students who are interested in devoting a substantial part of their year to developing their Talmudic skills far beyond their present state. The aim is to reach a high level of learning independence through the mastery of Talmudic texts. The bulk of time will be devoted to self-(chavruta) study of the Gemara text with Rashi and Tosafot. Class time supplements self-study by assuring a thorough understanding of what was learned, while also introducing additional material. Emphasis is placed on constant revision (chazara) as a tool for retaining material and developing independent study skills.

- Rav Avigdor Meyerowitz (Hebrew)
- Sunday and Wednesday 10:00 am – 12:30 pm
- Tuesday 9:45 am – 10:50 am
- 5 credits per semester

TAL 111–112

Bekiut Gemara • Talmud Survey

Students study selected chapters of the Talmud covering a variety of subject matter in order to acquire a wider perspective of Talmudic concepts and methodology. We start with Masechet Megillah, with the goal of completing two masechtot by the end of the year.

- Rav Avigdor Meyerowitz
- Sunday 9:00 am – 9:50 am,
- Tuesday 8:30 am – 9:35 am
- Wednesday 8:30 am – 9:50 am
- 4 credits per semester

TAL 119–120

Challenging Passages • Sugyot in the Talmud

In this course will study some of the most fundamental sugyot from the Talmud, with a focus on methodology of the Talmud and classic lomdus (analytical study). Prior to each of the festivals we will learn the classic distinctions (chakirot) relating to it. Topics covered include: mitzvat tashbitu, hiddur mitzva, kavod v'oneg Shabbat, bitul chametz and mitzvat teshuva.

- Rav Aviad Tabory
- Monday 2:45 pm – 3:45 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

TAL 123–124

Ethics of Our Fathers

This course is identical to JPH 143–144.

TAL 129–130

Before There Was Talmud •

Recreating Talmudic Methodology

We strive to create our 'own' Gemara, thinking like the Amoraim thought as they elucidated the Mishnayot. This is not an exercise in recreating a Gemara, but rather, by employing similar thought-processes, allows for a deeper understanding of the truncated language of the Mishnayot.

- Rav Jonathan Bailey
- Thursday 2:45 pm – 3:50 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

TAL 133–134

Aggadata • Talmudic Legends

Study the strange and exciting legends, stories and teachings that make up the non-halachic portions of the Talmud. Each week we will study and analyze together classic and less well known legend (aggadic) portions from the Talmud, and see what they come to teach and how they were understood throughout the ages.

- Rav Zvi Ron
- Monday 4:05 pm – 5:05 pm
- 1.5 credits per semester

TAL 138–139

Tzurba M'Rabanan

The term "Tzurba M'Rabanan" is used in the Talmud to refer to young scholars. In recent years, the term has been adopted by the Tzurba M'Rabanan Institute, which has developed a program of study of topics in Halacha, tracing their development from Biblical passages, through the Mishna and Talmud and Rishonim, Achronim and Poskim, allowing us to see how the Halacha came to be codified and applied to contemporary settings. In this class we utilize materials developed by the Tzurba M'Rabanan Institute to explore different topics in Halacha. In addition to the allotted class time students are required to devote a minimum of an extra hour for preparation of the materials.

Academic Opportunities

Bekiut Program

As a cornerstone of the study program at the Midrasha, a strong emphasis is placed on developing a wide breadth of knowledge and skills in basic areas of Jewish Studies. All students are required to register for a section of Bekiut Halacha (JUD 129–130), Bekiut Gemara (TAL 111–112) or Bekiut Nach (BIB 123–124) every Sunday and Wednesday, and Bekiut Torah (BIB 110–111) every Monday and Thursday. In addition, students may take an optional course in Bekiut Mishna (TAL 113–114). These survey courses all emphasize mastery of a wide range of material in each of these topics, as well as the development of skills for independent study of basic texts in each area.

Seder Erev

Seder Erev offers a range of study options designed to appeal to the varied interests of our students. Consult the course listings for further information. Seder Erev runs from 8:00 pm – 10:00 pm, Sunday and Tuesday through Thursday evenings. Faculty members – Dr. Judith Fogel, Rav Yonatan Horovitz and Eytan and Lytal Kleinberg – supervise the Seder Erev program. Attendance is mandatory.

Israeli Chavrutot

Students in the Overseas Program study a topic of their choice with a chavruta from the Israeli program. Students register for this Chavruta as part of the overall course registration process.

Judaism Through the Creative Arts

For students who are creative, having opportunities to explore and express their Torah values and insights, as well as their developing spirituality creatively is profoundly valuable. In response to the growing number of creative young women who join the Midrasha every year, we have developed courses allowing students to explore and expand their artistic and writing skills within their studies at the Midrasha. All courses in the Creative Arts program are designed to help students develop their skills in the specific art form and learn techniques that they can use to enhance their experience of learning and living as Jewish women. Where it is appropriate, we explore the halachik issues that might arise for religious creatives.

In “Artistic Expression” students learn a variety of artistically expressive techniques and experiment with materials, styles and mediums including painting, sculpture and drawing as well as paper cutting and calligraphy. Students produce their own art pieces and sometimes create an exhibit or production together on a shared theme. Students are encouraged to create personal projects and develop their own private portfolios, engaging in research in preparation for each work of art. Attention is paid to the Jewish calendar year, with related art projects that will reflect the nature of the Chagim, as well as to themes in Jewish art.

“The Written Word” is a hands-on writing workshop where students learn techniques for greater creative written expression while exploring the relationship of the written word to their inner spiritual life. Writing topics include those related to the Jewish yearly cycle and those that arise from the learning. “The Written Word - Journaling” teaches structured journaling techniques, integrating our Jewish knowledge, which helps us study, understand and consider what shapes our life, and how we might use what we have learned as we move forward. All Written Word classes involve an opening exercise, time for writing, and time for sharing in order to deepen our exploratory work.

In addition we will be offering Music as one of our creative options. Musical students will be invited to join a choir. For those who are interested in continuing to learn a musical instrument - the Midrasha will help facilitate lessons and provide a space for those lessons. The expense for individual lessons are not included in tuition and will be the responsibility of the student. If there is a group of interested students we will offer a master class and opportunities to play, explore and perform music together.

The inspiring location of the Midrasha allows our work to be influenced on a spiritual level that only the Old City of Jerusalem can provide. We are privileged to be studying and participating in creative endeavors at this historic time and the Creative Arts program aims to reflect this.

Guest Speakers

Throughout the year, guest speakers are regularly invited to address the student body. The speakers include rabbanim, educators, as well as leaders and scholars from a wide variety of areas. This part of the schedule provides the students with an excellent opportunity to meet, talk to and interact with prominent personalities from Israel and the Diaspora, as well as to be exposed to topics and ideas not included in the weekly timetable.

Shiur Klali

Shiur Klali takes place on Mondays from 5:30 pm – 6:30 pm. The shiur, generally given by Rav Milston, focuses on Parshat HaShavua. Attendance is mandatory for all students.

Hitnadvut – Voluntary Work

An integral part of the educational program at the Midrasha consists of volunteer work. Hitnadvut opportunities include but are not limited to assisting the aged, the sick or handicapped children and their parents, and tutoring in English. The Midrasha is proud to partner with the Kedma Volunteer Program in order to ensure that all of our students are placed in fulfilling volunteer work positions.

Tiyulim

The educational philosophy of Midreshet HaRova stresses the link between Eretz Yisrael and Torat Yisrael. In order to strengthen this link, there are a number of one, two and three-day tiyulim over the course of the year. Tiyulim span the length and breadth of the country and are designed to enable our students to connect to the land in a hands on way. Participation in all tiyulim is mandatory.

Poland Trip

The Midrasha conducts two yearly trips to Poland, one in the winter or spring for Northern Hemisphere students and the second during the summer, in conjunction with the MTA program, for Southern Hemisphere students. The trips focus on both the beauty and legacy of the Jewish community of Eastern Europe, as well as on the destruction of that community at the hands of the Nazis and their collaborators. Trip participants are required to dedicate several hours to special preparatory lectures prior to their departure, as well as prepare ceremonies and presentations which are given in Poland. The cost of the trip is not included in tuition. (There is no additional charge for MTA participants.)

Zionism Seminar

The Zionism Seminar (Zeminar) program offers an enriching in-depth seminar experience focusing on the development of Zionism and the Modern State of Israel for Northern Hemisphere students who choose not to participate in the Poland Trip. The Zeminar takes students through an historical and visual tour of the events, places and people which made the modern State of Israel possible – from visits to the museums connected to the founders and movements at the start of the State, to places as far as the Golan and Acco and as close as Har Herzl and the Knesset. Students learn about the challenging circumstances that were overcome while building the State, and the astonishing transformation to the Israel that is today, while enriching their understanding of and identification with the Land and its people. There is no additional charge for participation in the Zionism Seminar.

Special Study Options

Students in the Overseas Program can take advantage of additional study options beyond the standard timetable. Participation on these tracks is contingent upon approval of the program director.

Beit Midrash Option – Independent Study

Students may choose this option for any time other than Sunday, Monday, Wednesday or Thursday mornings from 10:05 pm – 12:45 pm and from 5:30 pm - 6:40 pm. Participation in this option involves mentored independent study. Participating students may be required to submit a project or paper on the topic studied. Credits will be granted either in parallel to existing courses or, in the case of students who are taking that course, as increased credit for the course. It is therefore possible for a student to earn an extra credit and a half beyond the stated credit value of a given course if she submits additional work done independent of the required course work.

Second Year Program

The second year program is designed to allow students who wish to dedicate another year to learning, the opportunity to develop to the utmost. Each second year student personally designs a program of study with the program director in order to ensure that she meets her personal goals. Second year students may take advantage of a series of courses designed especially for them, or enter any first year class of their choice. Second year classes are numbered 200 and above, and registration in these classes is limited to second year students only.

Seminars

In addition to the regular schedule of shiurim, Midreshet HaRova sponsors a number of annual seminars.

Past seminar topics have included: Zionism, the Holocaust, Yerushalayim, the Evolving Role of Women in Judaism, Jewish Business Ethics, and the Jew in the Modern World.

All seminars involve Midrasha staff, experts in relevant fields and renowned Torah personalities. Participation in these seminars is mandatory, unless otherwise noted.

General Information

Shabbatot

Shabbat at the Midrasha is an unforgettable experience. The seudot, combined with tefilla at the Kotel, create a truly spiritual atmosphere, unique to the Midrasha. Shabbat is shared with faculty members and their families who spend Shabbat with the students, giving shiurim and leading discussions and activities.

Shabbatot spent outside the Old City provide our students with the opportunity to encounter different segments of Israeli society and experience Israel in an exciting, yet very real fashion. The Hadracha team supplements these Shabbatot with varied educational activities.

There is generally a Midrasha shabbat once every three weeks. Students are expected to attend all of these Shabbatot. In the case of a conflict with a family simcha, or other event, permission may be received to miss a maximum of three shabbatot. The dates of Midrasha Shabbatot can be found in the annual schedule printed in this catalog.

Guests on Shabbat

The Midrasha is always happy to enable its students to invite guests for Shabbat. However, space limitations require that this be coordinated with the Eim Bayit. Guests may only be invited for scheduled in-Shabbatot.

Living Arrangements

Students are housed in our dormitory or in area apartments, and are provided with three daily tasty and nutritionally balanced meals. Meals are served only at the times indicated on the schedule. Students are required to participate in various toranuyot.

Please remember that the Midrasha is your home. Students are expected to keep both their rooms and all public areas neat and clean.

Security

For security reasons the doors of all Midrasha buildings are locked at all times. Students will be given the code necessary to enter the buildings. Under no circumstances should these codes be given to anyone outside the Midrasha.

There is a daily curfew of 12:15 am which is strictly enforced. Students must be in any one of the Midrasha buildings by the designated time. At the time of curfew, the Madrichot check that all students are in. It is each student's responsibility to ensure that she has been checked in. In case of breach of this critical security regulation, the program director will, in the company of the offending student, contact that student's parents and inform them that if the situation recurs, the Midrasha will have no option other than to ask the student to leave.

Students who are travelling for Shabbat, must note this on the 'Shabbat list' no later than 12:45 pm on Wednesday afternoon. Students must leave an additional phone number at which they can be reached before they leave for Shabbat. Please note that these rules are purely a security matter and are for your own safety.

Men are not allowed either inside or in front of the Midrasha, or in Midrasha housing, at any time.

Security regulations are continually reviewed and updated in light of the security situation in Israel. Any changes to the regulations will be communicated to both students and their parents in a clear and timely fashion. Students who fail to adhere to posted regulations are subject to action, up to and including suspension from the program.

Dress and Behavior

The Midrasha believes that Tzniyut is a central value in Judaism, for both men and women. The educational philosophy of the Midrasha views modesty in dress and behavior as a reflection of internalized values and not of an imposed code. Nonetheless, students often find general guidelines helpful. Students at the Midrasha are required to wear skirts that cover the knee, even when seated. Tight skirts, or skirts with excessive slits (ie. slits above the knee) are unacceptable. All shirts must have sleeves covering the elbow, and appropriate necklines. Shirts should not rise above the top of the skirt at any time. Tight shirts of any kind are inappropriate, and necklines should minimally come near the collarbone. If clothing is layered, please be certain that there are no gaps between the layers of clothing. Ear piercings are permitted; all other body piercings are considered inappropriate for Midrasha students. Visiting pubs, smoking, drinking, and use of any controlled substance are strictly forbidden and are grounds for immediate dismissal from the program. It goes without saying that students are expected to adhere to these norms at all times, whether the Midrasha is in session or not.

Academic Policy

Courses are yearlong, unless otherwise noted. For credit purposes titles are split into two, i.e. BIB 110–111.

Courses are in English unless otherwise noted.

Transcripts issued by the Midrasha come in two formats: P/F or with letter grades. The standard transcript is P/F, based upon the evaluation of the teacher. Students wishing to earn letter grades are required to submit written exams or projects.

Credits are based on one classroom hour per week per semester.

Semester length = 15 weeks

The grading scale is as follows:

A	=	94–100
A-	=	90–93
B+	=	87–89
B	=	84–86
B-	=	80–83
C+	=	77–79
C	=	74–76
C-	=	70–73
D	=	65–70

W = Withdrew from course with permission

INC = Incomplete

For courses graded Pass (P) or Fail (F): P is equivalent to C+ and above

Students should note that universities in their home country might only grant transfer credit for graded, as opposed to Pass/Fail, courses. In general, the Midrasha cannot guarantee that a student will receive transfer credit at universities in Israel or abroad. It is the individual student's responsibility to check the transfer credit policy of whichever university she plans on attending. Midreshet HaRova is a participant in the Yeshiva University Israel Program, Touro College Israel Option, and the Hebrew Theological College/Blitstein Teachers Institute Israel Experience Program (IEP). IEP students do not fulfill their requirements with a P/F transcript, and must earn letter grades. Students participating in an American University Israel Option are strongly advised to opt for graded transcripts in order to receive full credit.
